Easter Sunday

The Graces

- from March 1 through 4 - ask for the grace to receive what the Lord wants to give you.
- beginning on March 6 - and in every prayer period thereafter, ask for the grace to know Jesus intimately in order to love him more intensely and follow him more closely.

The Incarnation Contemplation

- prepare in the usual way
- then.....try to look upon the world through God's eyes: see its people, of great diversity in colour, dress, state, manner of acting. Some are white, some black, some yellow; some live in peace, others are at war; some are weeping, others laughing; some well, some sick; some are being born, some dying. There are the old and the young, the rich and the poor, the powerful and the powerless. Then there is the leap of divine joy: God knows that the time has come..... "let us work the redemption of the human race."

★April 15 Jesus is dead, his body in the tomb. His friends are devastated. For them this is a terrible day ....shattered hopes, confusion, fear, sense of loss. It's all over! Try to enter their feelings (with no Easter Sunday in prospect, remember). Ask for the grace to experience the loss and emptiness felt by Jesus' friends. Then, having prepared in the usual way, visit some of them (eg. Peter, Mary, Judas)....and get into the conversation.

April 17 As background, read John 20: 11 – 18. The risen Lord appears to some (though not all) of his friends to share his joy. He visits you....speak with him (having asked for the grace to enter his joy).

Texts for going on with:

- Luke 24: 13 – 35
- John 20: 19 – 29
- John 21: 1 – 17
- Luke 24: 44 – 53
- Acts 1: 1 – 12
